

Excerpt from Morning Minutes of 24 September

Thuermer will furnish OGC and DDO copies of the draft of the article on CIA which Harry Rositske is preparing for the New York Times Magazine. The Director desires that a security review be conducted applying the same criteria used in reviewing the Marchetti manuscript (Action: OGC and DDO).

Remarks: Angus: I spoke to Harry and said there were some penciled suggestions or corrections, which he said he would appreciate getting. I also talked to him about submitting any text to us first, and he readily agreed when he understood the problem we had with the Marchetti manuscript. I understand you can get this back to him. B. H. Nelson agrees that there are no security problems.
